SCANDENT SOLUTIONS BPO ARM CAMBRIDGE WINS A US $37.7 MILLION (Rs. 170 CRORES) CONTRACT FROM NEW SOUTH WALES WORKCOVER AUTHORITY IN AUSTRALIA TO ADMINISTER WORKERS COMPENSATION CLAIMS

- Contract Valued at US $37.7 Million (Rs. 170 crores) in aggregate to be delivered over the next three years (with an option for further renewal for three years).
- Doubles the employee base in Australia and gives Cambridge a solid foothold in the largest insurance (workers compensation Knowledge Process Outsourcing) market in Australia.
- Demonstrates the success of our strategy to win large deals by leveraging the scale of operations and global delivery capabilities.

Bangalore, India - November 3, 2005 - Scandent Solutions Corporation Ltd. (Scandent Solutions) today announced that its subsidiary (*) Cambridge Integrated Services Victoria Pty Limited (Cambridge Australia) has been awarded a three-year contract by New South Wales (NSW) WorkCover Authority to process their workers compensation claims. The contract becomes effective January 1, 2006, for a period of three years, with the opportunity for an additional three-year extension. The contract's estimated value is US $37.7 million (Rs.170 crores).

Cambridge Australia will open a new operational center in Sydney with approximately 150 new staff to support the contract and other opportunities in New South Wales (this will take the existing staff strength in Australia to a total of 360). With our existing operational center in the State of Victoria, and now with the addition of the center in the State of New South Wales, Cambridge has significantly advanced its expansion towards national distribution.

In the State of New South Wales, Cambridge Australia will replicate the successful model achieved in supporting the Victorian WorkCover Authority in Melbourne, Victoria. The New South Wales market is the largest workers compensation market in Australia, with a total premium value of US $1.9 billion (Rs. 8,550 Crore) and Cambridge's New South Wales operational center will facilitate the ability to capitalize on this new market opportunity. The current contract itself will give Cambridge Australia an 8 percent market share of the workers compensation claims processing market in the State of New South Wales.

Chris Sinclair, Executive Chairman and CEO, Scandent Solutions stated, “This win underlines the success of our strategy of being able to service large clients across the globe by leveraging our combined scale and our best in class delivery capabilities. This win is also a re-enforcement of our ability to undertake and deliver complex high end knowledge based outsourcing engagements.”

Through the new contract award, Cambridge will immediately acquire a definable market-share and client base by assuming the VERO Insurance portfolio and other allocated clients. Cambridge will immediately have access to the assets, staff and premises of this well performing portfolio.
